

URGENT ACTION

JOURNALIST SENTENCED TO FOUR YEARS IN JAIL

On May 28, 2024, the Aden-based Specialized Criminal Court (SCC) sentenced journalist, Ahmad Maher, to four years in prison following a grossly unfair trial on charges of disseminating false and misleading news and forging identity documents. Ahmad Maher was arrested on August 6, 2022 by security forces affiliated with the Southern Transitional Council (STC) de facto authorities in Aden. During interrogations at the Dar Sa'ad police station, security forces subjected him to torture and other ill-treatment to force him to "confess" to being involved in an attack on Dar Sa'ad police station in March 2022. He was denied access to adequate healthcare including for injuries sustained as a result of torture. He was also denied the right to adequate defense, to access a lawyer of his choosing, to presumption of innocence, and not to self-incriminate, rendering his detention arbitrary.

Dear Major General Aidros Alzubidi,

I am concerned to learn that the Aden-based Specialized Criminal Court (SCC) sentenced journalist, Ahmad Maher, 29, to four years in prison. According to a relative, Ahmad Maher was sentenced on charges of disseminating false and misleading news, a crime that is not recognized under international law, and forging identity documents in a hearing that lasted only five minutes.

Following his arrest, he was detained at Dar Sa'ad police station for over a month, during which he was denied family visits and access to a lawyer. According to a relative, Ahmad Maher was subjected to torture and other ill-treatment daily, including through beatings, water boarding, electric shocks, and mock executions. In addition, he was threatened with harm to his family, including his wife and baby girl, to force him to "confess" to involvement in an attack on Dar Sa'ad police station which took place in March 2022. During a hearing before the Aden-based SCC on March 6, 2023, Ahmad Maher told the judge that he was subjected to torture and that his "confession" was extracted under duress, but the judge failed to order an investigation. Authorities have denied Ahmad Maher access to healthcare, including for injuries sustained to his naval area as a result of torture.

I urge you to quash Ahmad Maher's conviction and sentence imposed after a grossly unfair trial. I also urge you to immediately ensure that Ahmad Maher is protected from further torture and other ill-treatment and that he is given immediate access to adequate healthcare and regular access to his lawyer and family.

Yours sincerely,

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

On September 4, 2022, Dar Sa'ad police station released a video which was shared on social media and national media news outlets featuring Ahmad Maher. In the video, which Amnesty International analyzed, Ahmad Maher appears to "confess" to criminal offenses including the forgery of identity documents for members of the military and his knowledge of assassination schemes against two STC military generals. According to his lawyer, the video, which violates his right to presumption of innocence, was not requested by the prosecution and was not recorded in their presence. A few days after the video was made public, a member of the criminal prosecution interrogated Ahmad Maher in Dar Sa'ad police station in the presence of members of Dar Sa'ad security forces who all were, according to Ahmad Maher's relative, involved in his torture. During questioning by the prosecution, Ahmad Maher retracted his "confession", stating that he was forced to make it under duress, and asked for referral to medical treatment. The prosecution requested the director of the police station to refer Ahmad Maher for treatment, but the request was refused. On September 15, 2022, Ahmad Maher was transferred to Bir Ahmad prison where he remains to date.

On November 16, 2023, security forces of the STC physically assaulted and arbitrarily detained Ahmad Maher's lawyer, Sami Yassin, as he was leaving work at the Supreme Judicial Council and Judicial Inspection in Khormaksar, Aden governorate. Following his arrest, security forces held him for almost four months at al-Nasr military camp, an official detention center under the command of the Security Belt forces. According to leaked letters from Sami Yassin, while detained there, he was tortured and held in solitary confinement. Throughout his detention, he has been held incommunicado and denied his right to contact and meet his family and a legal representative. On March 6, 2024, he was transferred to Bir Ahmad prison in Aden governorate, where he remains to date amid serious concerns for his health.

All parties to the conflict in Yemen have perpetrated grave human rights violations, including arbitrary detention, enforced disappearances, torture and other ill-treatment, and unfair trials. In November 2023, the UN Panel of Experts on Yemen reported that STC affiliated forces are detaining, subjecting to enforced disappearance, or threatening journalists and activists who publicly criticize them and are forcing them to sign or deliver "confessions". The Panel also documented that STC-affiliated forces are systematically torturing detainees in formal and secret prisons.

In July 2018, Amnesty International published a report on enforced disappearances and detention violations committed by UAE-backed security forces, including the Security Belt forces in southern Yemen. Many arrests appeared to be based on unfounded suspicions and personal vendettas. Among those targeted were former fighters who fought in the 2015 battles to rout the Huthis from the south and who were later seen as a threat; sympathizers and members of the Hadi-aligned Islah party, Yemen's Muslim Brotherhood branch; as well as activists and critics of the coalition.
